

Rebild Rotary Club
Invites to
Rotary International Short Term Camp

CAMP GREEN PLANET 2016

21st of July – 1st of August 2016 in Denmark

Theme:
NATURE
ORGANIC FARMING
RENEWABLE ENERGY
CULTURAL UNDERSTANDING
LIVING WITH SCARCE ENERGY RESOURCES
A unique camp experience
for up to 20 young people aged 17 - 21.

You are invited to take part in Camp Green Planet 2016. The 12 day camp will take place in and around Rebild in beautiful North Jutland, Denmark.

Camp location

Rebild and surrounding area in North Jutland, Denmark

Number of participants

Max 20 boys and girls (1 girl and 1 boy only from each country)

Camp language

English

Costs

€ 100 camp fee. The fee is payable in advance and no later than May 1, 2016. Pocket money and travel expenses from home to the camp in Denmark are not included.

Transfer details: Please pay to our bank: Jutlander Bank A/S,

IBAN: DK2698122072851873 SWIFT/BIC: JUTBDK21

Intermediary bank: KRONDK22

Recipient: Rebild Rotary Klub, v/Tom Iver Poulsen

Please remember to indicate your name and country.

Preliminary Program

- Visit to the wind turbine manufacturer Siemens Wind Power A/S Aalborg
- Visit to the Large-scale solarheatingplant manufacturer Arcon- Sunmark A/S
- Excursions to wind turbine -, solar heat - and wave power sites
- Farming; conventional and organic
- Sightseeing in North Jutland
- Visit to historic sites
- Get-together

Accommodation

Rebild Efterskole Sport & Adventure: www.rebildefterskole.dk

Nonalcoholic and nonsmoking area.

Arrival to the camp from your home country

Skørping Train Station via train from Copenhagen Airport (approx. 3.5 hours) or directly by train from your home country during Thursday July 21st, where you will be picked up.

Departure for your home country

Monday August 1st from Skørping Train Station.

Insurance

Participants must be insured against illness, accidents, theft and third party liability.

Application

Submit the filled-in standard Rotary International Short Term Youth Exchange application form with photo.

Applications must be received (by e-mail only) no later than April 20 st, 2016 at cm-st@rotary-yep.net

Additional Information

For more detailed information on the Camp Green Planet program please visit our website: www.rebild-rotary.dk

or contact

Camp Green Planet project coordinator:

Ejvind Sørensen

E-mail: ejvindelkjer@gmail.com

Phone: +4540552339

or for information about application contact

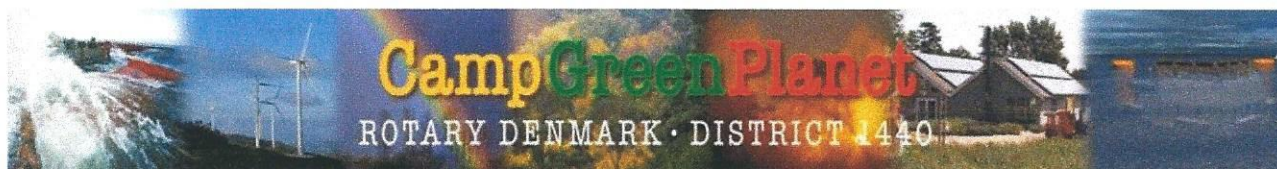

Chairman: Rotary Short Term Exchange Program

Jakob Volther, Denmark

E-Mail: cm-st@rotary-yep.net

We look forward to see you in Rebild, Denmark this summer!

Rebild Rotary Club

Camp Green Planet

Camp Green Planet is an international youth camp under Rotary's Short-Term Exchange program. The camp is arranged and sponsored by Rebild Rotary Club, district 1440 in Denmark.

Rebild Rotary Club - District 1440 - Denmark

Activities and visits during the Camp

Sightseeing in Rebild and surroundings.

Canoeing on Lindenborg å (river)

Visit to Rebildcentret. www.rebildcentret.com

Renewable energy experiments.

Visit to Nordisk Folkecenter for renewable energy. www.folkecenter.net/gb

Visit to Arcon-Sunmark A/S Skørping, large-scale solarheatingplant manufacturer. www.arcon.dk

Visit to Skørping Varmeværk, Running on Biomasses, Solar heating and Solar Power.

Visit to Siemens Wind Power A/S Aalborg, wind turbine blades manufacturer. www.siemens.com

Visit to Bladt Industries A/S Aalborg, offshore foundation and transformer manufacturer.
www.bladt.dk

Visit to biogas plant and organic farming.

Visit to Lindholm Høje Museum from the Viking Age. www.normus.dk

Visit to Utzon Center Aalborg, made by the famous Danish architect Jørn Utzon, known from The Opera house in Sidney Australia. www.utzoncenter.dk

Sightseeing and shopping in Aalborg.

Mountain biking and walking in Rold Skov.

Minigolf Tournament or playing golf at Rold Skov Golf Club for golfers.

Sightseeing at the West Coast and bathing if the weather permits.

Farwell party and Rotary Meeting.

Can be changed because off Industrial and School Holiday in the Camp period.