

INVITATION:

CAMP ROSKILDE, DENMARK DURING SUMMER 2015.

Experience Denmark - through centuries up to to-day.

Camp purpose: As a group member you will learn how the vikings lived, sailed and played and through sports-, racing-, biking-, culture-, and leisure time activities get the understanding of how this life formed the Danish society of to-day.

Dates: From week-end 11-12 July 2015 to week-end 25-26 July 2015.

Group size: 20 participants, preferably equal number of boys and girls.

Age range: 16 - 18 years old.

Language: English

Accommodation: Family stay during week-ends upon arrival and departure. During effective camp period stay at scouts cottage, schools dormitory, tents or open air. Upon arrival you will be met in the airport by your Rotary host.

Closing date for application: 1st May, 2015.

Camp fee: 200 € to be paid in advance (see instruction at camp home page)

Requirements: The standard requirements for Rotary short term exchange must be accepted. You arrange and pay your ticket T/Rt Copenhagen/Denmark, take insurance, bring pocket money.

Further information: The camp website www.camproskilde.dk

Send application to: Jakob Volther chairman, short term exchange program
cm-st@rotary-yep.dk